Banfield was the heart and soul of Southern Cross brass band, riding his bike into town to teach band members the various instruments.
Musical sessions were conducted at various people would come to listen.

Concerts were popular and the band was never

The town even boasted a pagoda specially built

Southern Cross 2 Day Enduro Event

Wow. The 2022 SXMCC 2 Day Enduro is over and what a fantastic weekend it was.

Firstly a huge thank you to the SXMCC committee Lynda, Josie, Fredo, Della for the mammoth effort put in behind the scenes to make this year one of the best, if not the best, 2 day events that I can remember. (I may be biased though 🤔)

Also thanks to what I am calling our extended committee members who are the dedicated extra few people who turn up to all our meetings, busy bees, etc and are always willing to lend a hand where possible.

What a feast we were treated to over the entire weekend! The club is renowned for always providing a fantastic feed and it certainly did not disappoint! So a huge thanks to Dave Pasini, Paul Della, Ray Della, Eric, Lynda, Fredo, Rod and the countless others who helped cook, make, prep and serve the food!

Thanks you to our officials Micky and Fitzy for once again helping us to hold a seamless event. We can always count on you both to perform you official roles to the highest of standards. It was great working with you both and it was my pleasure to spend the weekend with you both.

Thanks also to Ang & Ears for doing the timing for the event this year, it was great having you.

Thanks to Tawnie for once again helping with the registrations when we were under the pump for what felt like hours on end, bringing the last minute things we needed from Mandurah and Perth, cleaning, helping in the kitchen, on the check point, hospital transfer service, translator and the list goes on. You certainly were busy this weekend

The track this year was perfect. If we could pencil in the rain we had last weekend every year for the week before our 2 day we certainly would because everyone was stoked with how great of a ride it was. As always the track had a nice blend of sand, loam, mud, rock, bush, shrubs, hill climbs and more so a huge thanks to Brownie, Della and the entire marking out crew for the many weekends spent creating the track. We certainly nailed it this year.

Thanks also especially goes to the land owners and tenement holders for allowing us to access you land. Without your approvals we couldn't have held such a great event.

Next people I have to thank is of course all the St John's Ambulance volunteers and Stacey the medic who once again gave up their weekend to keep us all safe. Thankfully we only had a few injuries over the weekend and we wish them all a speedy recovery and hope to see you again next year.

A huge thanks to the people who helped set up and pack away, the checkpoint operators, recovery drivers, those on road crossings, doing registrations, lead and sweep riders and honestly the list goes on and on and everyone else that gave up their time to volunteer for our club. There is so many that helped out and please know that we thank you all for your time.

Our major sponsor this year was Ramelius Resources. Thanks for coming on board, we really appreciate your support.

I would also like to acknowledge and thank all our other sponsors. Without their generous contributions to the club we would not have been able to run such a great event.

Nominations call for 2023 Rural Women's Awards

Released on:

Tuesday, 13. September 2022 - 11:30

Nominations are now open for the 2023 Rural Women's Awards, which celebrates the essential role women play across regional Australia.

Department of Primary Industries and Regional Development (DPIRD) Acting Director General Heather Brayford said women living and working in regional and rural Western Australia were encouraged to consider nominating for the State award.

"The AgriFutures Rural Women's Award is Australia's leading accolade, empowering and celebrating the leadership of women involved in rural and emerging industries, businesses and communities," Ms Brayford said.

"I encourage Western Australian women who are passionate about their work and communities and want to build their skills and networks to consider this fantastic award.

"The State winner receives a $15,000 bursary to support their project, business or program which benefits the rural community, who then goes on to compete for the national title.

"Applicants must have an existing project, business or program which is up and running, or will soon be operating."

Denmark-based farmer and online business operator Louise O'Neill won the 2022 WA award.

Louise runs Farm Life Fitness, which aims to overcome the constraints of long distances in the bush to deliver one-on-one coaching and live online group fitness workouts.

Her mission is to provide an online community where rural populations can reach out and improve their mental and physical wellbeing.

Louise has been able to use her WA bursary to work with a business coach to make changes to her business, enabling her to take on a new staff member, a specialist coach for pre and post pregnancy mental and physical training.

Applications for the 2023 AgriFutures Rural Women's Award close on Wednesday, 19 October 2022.

For information about applying, contact DPIRD Core Programs Manager Rob Leicester at rob.leicester@dpiird.wa.gov.au or 0419 921 056. More awards information is available from the AgriFutures website <https://agrifutures.com.au/>

Denmark-based farmer and online business operator Louise O'Neill won this year's Western Australian Rural Women's Award. Nominations for the 2023 award are now open.

The WA awards are supported by DPIRD, Westpac, CBH and RRR Network.
